Thank You from Pauline

Well, that is it—the AGM is over. Please warmly welcome and support John Farrall as Churchwarden at All Saints' - I know you will. A heartfelt thank-you to each and every one of you for the generous help and support always shown to me. It has been quite a journey, and still we move on and on in His hands. God bless you all, Pauline Simmons.

Tuesday Evening Alpha

Beginning 27 April, 7.15 pm at St Andrew's

Alpha this term will not be held on a Monday lunchtime. However, after a successful 'blokes' introductory supper', we are now holding the Alpha course for both men and women beginning this Tuesday. Please do invite—or bring along—friends and family. It is not too late! Prayers for this term's course would also be greatly appreciated.

Children's Society Boxes

Please would those of you who have been collecting boxes for the Children's Society either bring them to St Andrew's, or phone Sheila Whipp on 763845 for collection. Thank you.

Taste—and Make—a Difference

Ruth Hills' mother is baking about 20 more of her famously popular fruit cakes to help raise funds for the Uganda trip this summer. Orders can be placed by speaking to John Farrall at church, or by contacting Dan Walton on 07510 316515, or via coldsky@live.com

Evening Worship Music Team

Jackie Recchia is looking to expand the evening worship music team. Musicians need to be available 5—8.15 pm each Sunday evening in term time. For further details, please contact Jackie on 07733 157975.

'Mugabe and the White African'

After a packed house on Sunday, City Screen will be re-showing this acclaimed film on:

- Monday 26 April at 8.30 pm
 - Tuesday 27 April at 1.15 pm
- www.picturehouses.co.uk/cinema/
